> Ir is not often we have to accuse the members of a Church Body of depriving church attendants of the opportunity of increasing the funds. The letter of A Soldier, an eye witness, has opened our eyes to the fact that the usual lynx eyed gentlemen told off to gather the offertory at St. John's have been for once at fault. We do not: publish our correspondent's letter, partly because its publication would not affect tha good aimed at so well as the notice may do, and partly because our previous experience of carriers of the bag have been so different Our correspondent contends that a discourtesy was shown to certain soldiers, insamuch as they were not called upon to put their mits in the offertory bag. Well, we have strong views about the treedom of the churches, and have strong objections to the offertory bag being thrust under our nose at every service. So that our correspondent and the public will understand when we express surprise at any annovance being shown over a trifle like that of the church-warden overlooking your presence. FAREWELL ADDRESS BY BISHOP BURDON.

At the conclusion of his sermon at St John's Cathedral yesterday morning the Right Rav. Bishop Burdon said :- As] shall not be able after to day to address the Cathedral congregation again before leaving Hongkong, I wish to say a few words of good-bye now. Very few men can come to the close of a long-continued period of work without pain in the retrospect. Failures and mistakes and omissions loom them very large in the mind, and especially whon, as in my case, they are connected with the sacred work of the Church These are matters, however, between each man's soul and God, and I need not enlarge. My work, as you know, has been mainly in connection with Chinese Missions in the two southernmost provinces of Chins, those in the Fukien province having grown during the last twenty years so as to cover a large part of the province equal to the half of England. I have also done what I could for our English congregations. I thank you with all my heart for the kind and generous responses which youand other residents in this colony not belonging to our Church-have invariably. year by year, made to my appeals on behalf of local and other objects; such as the Seamen's Mission, so long and successfully soryed by Mr Goldsmith, and now placed, I hope, on a permanent basis; the educational efforts connected with the Diocesan School, one of the best schools in the colony; and the school opened in St. Paul's College for the education of our own English boys, which was unfortunately brought to an end after ten years of existence, five at least of which showed much successful work; and the missionary efforts among Chinese, as in the erection of the hospital at Pakhoi. Very much remains to be done here, in Hongkong, which from circumstances beyond my control I have not been able to accomplish. St. Paul's College, which has only at present a small Anglos Chinese day school, should be turned into o unit missiones; thethubing the training of men, whether Europeans or Chinese, to carry the knowledge of Christianity to those parts of the province that are yet untouched the original object, be is remembered, for which the building was erocted. I did try to carry this object out effort ought also to be made among our own people of the humbler class, to be found in yearly increasing numbers in Queen's Road and elsewhere. The Eurasian population makes another demand on our Christian charity, especially the young girls belonging to that glass. I earnestly trust that my successor will be able soon to initiate and carry on these and other necessary works, so as to make our Church a means of light and blessing to all classes among us. So now I bid you good-bye.

Over the spoils the Spaniards are now quarrelling amongst themselves, and denouncing one another.

After these doings I thought it best to clear out to Manila, being the only Englishman in the place, and as such not at all in favour with the Spaniards at spresent, who are well aware that the foreigners as a rule sympathise with the natives in the struggle to throw off the most rotten and corrupt Government that ever
